I operate my amateur station, W8KGI, in a electromagnetically quiet, country location. I am concerned that running BPL/PLC data on open wire, pole mounted power lines would create severe, broadband interference throughout the HF spectrum.